By accessing or using the Service, you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree to these Terms, you must not access or use the Service.

1. THE PARTIES

These Terms constitute a legally binding agreement between:

GRIFFINCRAFT S.R.L. and any individual or legal entity accessing or using the Service ("User", "you", or "your").

2. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of these Terms:

Account means a QuestGuard account created through Google Authentication.

Service means the QuestGuard website, software, digital content, downloadable materials, tools, databases, APIs, and any related services provided by GRIFFINCRAFT S.R.L.

Products means digital products, downloadable files, physical products, premium content, memberships, or any other purchasable offerings made available through the Service.

User Content means any content created, uploaded, imported, submitted, published, stored, or shared by a User, including but not limited to campaigns, adventures, encounters, monsters, items, maps, notes, characters, JSON files, YAML files, images, Base64 assets, URLs, comments, and any other user-generated material.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Service is intended for a general audience.

If you are under the age at which applicable law permits you to enter into binding agreements independently, you may only use the Service with the consent or supervision of a parent or legal guardian.

By using the Service, you represent that you have the legal capacity to accept these Terms under the laws applicable to you.

4. ACCOUNT REGISTRATION

Access to certain features requires a QuestGuard Account.

Accounts are currently created through Google Authentication.

You agree to:

- provide accurate account information;
- maintain the security of your Google account;
- promptly notify QuestGuard of unauthorized access to your account where you become aware of it.

You are responsible for all activities occurring under your Account unless prohibited by applicable law.

5. ACCOUNT OWNERSHIP AND TRANSFERS

Accounts are personal.

Unless expressly authorized by QuestGuard:

- Accounts may not be sold;
- Accounts may not be transferred;
- Accounts may not be rented;
- Accounts may not be shared for commercial purposes;
- Access to purchased Products may not be transferred to another Account.

QuestGuard reserves the right to refuse or revoke transfers that violate these Terms.

6. LICENSE TO USE THE SERVICE

Subject to these Terms, QuestGuard grants you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use the Service for your personal or internal lawful purposes.

Nothing in these Terms transfers ownership of the Service, its software, artwork, rules, trademarks, branding, or other intellectual property.

All rights not expressly granted are reserved.

7. DIGITAL PRODUCTS

Purchasing a Product grants you a license to access and use that Product.

Unless otherwise stated:

- the purchase does not transfer ownership of any intellectual property;
- the purchase does not grant resale rights;
- the purchase does not permit redistribution;
- the purchase does not permit republication;
- the purchase does not permit commercial exploitation.

Digital Products purchased through QuestGuard may generally be accessed online and downloaded repeatedly while the Service remains commercially available.

QuestGuard does not guarantee that the Service will remain available indefinitely.

8. SERVICE AVAILABILITY

QuestGuard is provided on a commercially reasonable efforts basis.

GRIFFINCRAFT S.R.L. will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the availability, integrity, security, and reliability of the Service.

However, the Service may become unavailable due to reasons including:

- maintenance;
- upgrades;

- infrastructure failures;
- cloud service interruptions;
- cyberattacks;
- denial-of-service attacks;

- discontinuation of the Service.

QuestGuard does not guarantee uninterrupted availability or error-free operation.

8.1 Access Credentials

QuestGuard may provide access to certain Products, features, or content through activation codes, license keys, promotional codes, Kickstarter reward codes, beta invitations, trial access, or other access credentials ("Access Credentials").

Unless expressly stated otherwise, Access Credentials grant only the rights described at the time they are issued and do not, by themselves, constitute a permanent purchase or ownership interest in any Product.

Certain Access Credentials may be temporary, promotional, campaign-specific, or otherwise subject to expiration or additional conditions. QuestGuard reserves the right to modify, replace, suspend, or revoke such Access Credentials in accordance with their stated terms, including upon expiration, campaign completion, or fulfillment of the purpose for which they were issued.

For example, Access Credentials distributed during crowdfunding campaigns may be intended solely to provide temporary early access to Products or features before campaign fulfillment. Upon fulfillment, QuestGuard may replace such temporary Access Credentials with permanent entitlements corresponding to the rewards earned by the applicable backer.

QuestGuard also reserves the right to suspend or revoke Access Credentials where reasonably necessary, including in cases involving:

- fraud or attempted fraud;
- chargebacks or payment reversals;
- unauthorized transfers or resale;
- misuse of promotional or campaign codes;
- technical or administrative errors resulting in unintended access;
- violation of these Terms; or
- other circumstances where continued access would be unlawful or would compromise the integrity or security of the Service.

Nothing in this Section permits QuestGuard to arbitrarily revoke permanently purchased Products that have been lawfully acquired. Where a User has validly purchased a Product, QuestGuard will honor that purchase in accordance with these Terms, the applicable Refund & Digital Products Policy, and mandatory consumer protection laws. However, QuestGuard does not guarantee perpetual availability of the Service, and continued access to digital Products depends upon the ongoing commercial operation of QuestGuard.

- enforce these Terms;
- protect the Service;

QuestGuard may maintain backups for operational purposes.

However, Users remain responsible for maintaining independent backups of important User Content.

QuestGuard does not guarantee recovery of deleted, corrupted, or lost User Content.
